ARMY SERVICE FORCES
OFFICE OF THE QUARTERMASTER GENERAL
WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

21 October 1944.

Colonel C. P. Spruill, Jr.,
3909 Pennsylvania Avenue, SE,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Colonel Spruill:

It was indeed a pleasure to receive your letter of 10 October 1944. I am glad that you find your new work interesting and that you occasionally come in contact with someone who has benefited in some small way from our efforts here in Quartermaster.

We frankly miss the pleasure of associating with you in our work here and in many ways have felt the effects of your absence.

Please make an effort to come back and see us once in a while, even though your activities do not bring you in contact with Military Planning.

With best wishes, and hoping to have the pleasure of seeing you again soon, I am,

Very sincerely yours,

GEORGES F. DORIOT,
Colonel, QMC.
