Your letter reached me the day before I left had no time to ask and am very sorry you feel that you must leave. Under your father's immediate action will not call committee together until my return B. L. Broadway is Chairman and can call committee. Sooner if you wish it. Hope you can see your way clear to reconsider. We are having a very delightful time took our babies in bathing this AM they were delighted after getting used to it. I feel the trip will do us all good. Hope you & your
